1. Demolish sensational butter chicken @ Pandara Road ☒
When chefs accidentally tossed a sauce consisting of butter, tomato, and chicken juices in with tandoori chicken pieces, the rest as they say turned out to be history and this miracle mouth-watering dish was born.
2. Dose up on some Dosa @ Dosa Kitchen ☐
Usually packed with a spiced vegetable filling, Dosas are made from rice flour and ground pulses and are very similar to a crepe texture, but infused with a zing of Indian flavours.
3. Grab a portion of paneer @ Dhaba by Claridges ☐
Paneer is a tasty affair and a common dish in India. Either served grilled as a starter, or curried alongside meat for a main course, this Indian take on cottage cheese is truly a delight.
4. Be brave and try rice with gunpowder & ghee @ Andhra Bhawan canteen, Patel Chowk ☐
A bit like marmite, you'll either love or hate this dish, but it's how it's served which makes the difference. This powerful pairing is enough to blow you socks off, and is a hardcore number for avid fans of spice. But, when in Delhi...
5. Munch some Momos @ Momo's Point ☐
Being one of the most popular Indian snacks momos are found all over the street markets in Delhi. These tasty dumplings are available to both vegetarians and meat eaters - best served with a side of fiery sauce.
