Get your pulse pumping with a triple bypass burger

@ Heart Attack Grill

As you sit in your complimentary patient gown at this hospital themed restaurant, prepare yourself for the hearty burger coming your way. Usually served with a side of lard fried fries and a hot basket of onion rings, this dish will sure enough blow your daily calorie intake through the roof.

Wake up to a famous breakfast martini
@ The Cromwell

If there was a perfect time to start slurping, it would be first thing right? Why not start your day with this gin infused martini blended with Cointreau, fresh lemon, and orange marmalade to ease in guilt-free.

Heat things up with jalapeño mac & cheese @ Slice of Vegas

If you're after a good stodgy meal, this is the dish for you.
Mac & cheese, a traditional American dish, served in a herbed olive oil bread bowl with a fried jalapeño on the side will certainly line your stomach for a night in Vegas and is also a great choice for fans of spice.

Fill up on some fizz noir
@ FIZZ

Slurp on this swoon-worthy cocktail as you sit in a dazzling gold accented palace owned by David Furnish. As one of this bar's most popular cocktails, this drink consists of cherries, lemon juice, Grey Goose, rock candy syrup, and of course some Domaine Chandon Brut to provide the fizz you're after.

Enjoy a glass with some Mediterranean sea bass @ Le Cirque

Accompanied by crisp potato, braised leeks and a glass of Château du Moulin-à-Vent, this thick fillet of sea bass for your entrée will leave your mouth mesmerised. This Michelin starred restaurant serves this particular dish on its five course menu and is definitely a must-do whilst in
