- Get your chops around a cherry pie
 @ The Pie Hole
 This pie is made with an all-butter crust and stuffed with some of Calgary's juiciest cherries. The dreamy dessert is served warm and folded so it's perfect size for an on-the-go nibble.
- You'll be weak at the knees after these buns with cheese
 @ Glamorgan Bakery
 These buns are no secret in the area as this is one of the busiest bakeries in the city, and these buns are definitely worth a taste. With a family formula that hasn't changed since the seventies, these ultra-cheesy rolls are the perfect bite. People are also known to buy bags of them to take home!
- Slurp on Prickly Pear EquineOx
 @ Eau Claire Distillery
 Available all year round, this sweet springy barley based alternative to gin or vodka is best served either on ice or as a complement to your favourite cocktail. It's the first spirit to be distilled using local prickly pears, giving this drink an unusual but perfect bouquet of flavour.
- Tuck in to Sherm's ultimate gripper
 @ Tubby Dog
 Hot dogs are the core of this well-known and loved late night Calgary hangout and this particular 'dog' is the one for the hungry. Wrapped in bacon then deep fried and topped with ham, homemade chilli, cheese, mustard, more bacon, hot peppers, onions, and a fried egg; this dog is sure to keep your tummy from barking for a while.
- Indulge in a doughnut
 @ Jelly Modern Doughnuts
 Considered 'Calgary's fancy doughnut joint', Jelly Modern is a must try for their assortment of sweet creations. Famous for their array of fillings and zests, these naughty treats are perfect for fans of all flavours.
