POCKET FOOD AND FLIGHT GUIDE

- 1 Wolf down some Peking duck
@ Da Dong Duck
Try out the epitome of Beijing cuisine at one of the city's most recommended duck restaurants.
- 2 Gobble down a Jiaozi dumpling
@ Mr Shi's Dumplings
Jiaozi is a dish which has been pivotal in Chinese folk tradition. A plate of Jiaozi with a side garnish of soy and chilli sauce is sure to tickle all taste buds.
- 3 Sip on some tea soup
@ Juyuan House
Also known as Dragon tea, it consists of a blend of lotus root starch, hot water, brown sugar, peanuts, and raisins. A quirky delicacy to definitely tick off the list.
- 4 Ruin your teeth with some sugar-coated haws
@ Opera theatres and street vendors
Got a sweet tooth? This is one of the most authentic Beijing snacks in town. Being just hawthorn berries covered in sugar, there really isn't much not to enjoy.
- 5 Slurp on zha jiang Noodles
@ Wangfujing Street
Topped with minced-pork in a soybean paste, this classic Beijing noodle dish is jam-packed full of fragrant flavour. And, if you're feeling super adventurous, add on a side of julienned cucumber!
