

DESTINATION

Here's our must-visit attractions when visiting Calgary.

Heritage park

As Canada's largest living museum, Heritage park not only boasts beautiful historic period homes, streets and shops, but a full-sized working steam engine. There's also an array of restaurants, cafés, demonstration and activities; you won't know what to do first!

Banff national park

Home to landscapes of epic proportions, Banff is an adrenaline junkie's dream. With mountain biking, kayaking, and walking there's plenty of activities available. For those experienced climbers, head to Mt. Norquay and scale the 3000m face via the famous Iron road.

Calgary tower

If your heading to downtown Calgary be sure to stop by the tower. The 191m structure offers jaw dropping views over the city and Rocky Mountains to the North. For those undeterred by heights, take to the glass floor for a birds-eye view of Calgary.

Big rock brewery

The home of some of Canada's finest craft beer and ales the Big Rock Brewery is a great way to start a downtown night-out. With craft beer experts on-hand to guide you through the brewing process and tasting opportunities, you'll be three sheets to the wind after this insightful and intriguing 'beerverventure'.
