DESTINATION

Here are our must-visit attractions when visiting the beautiful province of Figari on the island of Corsica.

Pianottoli Diving Centre

Dive in and explore hidden pockets of wilderness within the shores of southern Corsica. From beginners, to certified divers, this experience is suitable for anyone who wants to discover some of the most beautiful reefs, wrecks, and fish the Mediterranean has to offer.

King Aragon Steps

Up for a challenge? Test your fitness levels and climb King Aragon steps located just a few miles outside Figari. The stony historic staircase carved into a cliff is bursting with charm and enchanting alcoves to discover. There's even a natural spring and hidden cave to explore whilst descending.

Bonifacio

Visit the gorgeous city of Bonifacio - just a short drive from Figari and surrounded by medieval houses, fascinating places to wander, and a nearby lighthouse with breathtakingly beautiful views back across to the town.

Pirate Adventure

Discover the exceptional sites of the Natural Reserve surrounding the island on a jet-ski whilst learning about the legends of Bonifacio who cruised the mythical Mediterranean.

Port Vecchio

This quaint town includes a small but exclusive harbour and is great for holiday-makers in Corsica wanting to sample an array of local cuisine at one of the surrounding eateries, or soak up the sunshine on one of the nearby beaches.
