DESTINATION

Here are our must-visit attractions when visiting the Tuscan capital of Florence:

Galleria degli Uffizi

Visit Galleria Degli Uffizi, home to some of the world's greatest Italian renaissance art including works by Leonardo da Vinci, Botticelli and Michelangelo. As well as holding treasures on the inside, the gallery building itself boasts breathtakingly beautiful 15th century Italian architecture.

La Terrazza rooftop bar

This trendy rooftop bar at Hotel Continentale is a perfect late afternoon spot as the skyline views across Florence at sunset are truly spectacular. Why not treat yourself to a 'Lemon Swizzle' from the cocktail menu accompanied by some nibbles whilst you soak up the surroundings.

Santo Spirito organic market

Meander through the quaint stalls at Santo Spirito market and sample some of the local produce, textiles, art, and culture. It's the perfect place to try some true Italian delicacies and indulge in some shopping!

Florence cathedral

Originally called Il Duomo di Firenze, this enchanting dome roofed gothic cathedral is the main church of Florence and vaunts panoramic views across the city. Arguably the most important landmark in Florence, its simply got to be ticked off.

Trattoria Sabatino

As authentic Tuscan restaurants go, this one is extra special. This family-run restaurant opened in 1956 serving traditional homestyle Italian meals at an affordable price. Enjoy mains like roast chicken clock and an array of pasta and feast like a true Tuscan.
