DESTINATION

Here are our must-visit attractions when visiting the beautiful island of Grenada:

Grand Anse Beach

It's impossible to visit the Grenada without wanting a taste of its golden sand and Grand Anse is the most famous beach of them all with calm blue waters perfect for swimming.

National parks and waterfalls

Grenada is home to a rich diversity of wildlife, flora and fauna. Grand Etang National Park is perfect for hiking and discovering local beauty spots like Seven Sisters Falls and Annandale Falls.

St George's

Grenada's capital is a popular spot for day trips away from the beach. If you're visiting during August, you may even be lucky enough to see the calypso steel bands at the carnival celebrations taking place during the month's second week.

Underwater Sculpture Park

Marine enthusiasts, this is the destination for you. Grenada is home to world-class wreck diving sites and unique snorkelling at Molinere Bay's underwater sculpture park.

Grenada Chocolate Factory

Grenada isn't nicknamed 'Spice Island' for no reason. From culinary food tours to an excursion to Grenada Chocolate Factory, your taste buds are in for a treat!
