Access to these lounges are subject to eligibility and availability.

Cape Town

Attractions

Cape Town is a stunning coastal city known for its natural beauty and vibrant culture. Visitors can enjoy pristine beaches, breathtaking hikes and rich cultural experiences in one of the world's most scenic cities. Take a cable car to the top of Table Mountain for panoramic views, visit Robben Island to learn about Nelson Mandela's legacy or explore the historic vineyards of the Cape Winelands for world-class wine tasting.

Food

Cape Town's culinary scene is renowned for its fresh seafood, featuring dishes like kingklip and the city's signature Cape Malay curries, which combine sweet and savoury spices influenced by the region's rich heritage. These meals are perfectly paired with award-winning wines from the nearby Stellenbosch and Franschhoek vineyards.

Fun fact

Cape Town is home to the iconic Kirstenbosch Botanical Gardens, one of the world's great botanic gardens, where every plant is indigenous to South Africa.

Johannesburg

Attractions

Johannesburg, South Africa's largest city, is a hub of culture, history, and vibrant urban life. Known as the gateway to the country's fascinating past, it offers a dynamic mix of historical landmarks, bustling markets, and modern attractions. Visitors can experience the Apartheid Museum to gain insight into South Africa's history, tour the vibrant streets of Soweto, or discover Constitution Hill, a former prison turned into a national heritage site.

Food

Johannesburg's food scene blends traditional South African flavours with global influences. Must-try dishes include bunny chow, a curry-filled bread loaf, and biltong, a spiced dried meat snack. For a true local experience, enjoy a braai (barbecue) with boerewors, lamb chops, and sides like pap and chakalaka. Visit food markets like Neighbourgoods or Fourways to sample these local favourites in a vibrant setting.

Fun fact

Johannesburg has the world's largest man-made urban forest, with over 10 million trees throughout the city, making it a surprisingly green metropolis!

Your clients can explore everything South Africa has to offer when you book British Airways flights through Lime.
